A postage stamp from Japan (NIPPON) with a face value of 50. The stamp depicts a scenic view of a mountain (likely Mount Fuji) in the background, a body of water in the middle ground, and a person in traditional Japanese clothing standing on a rocky shore in the foreground. The text "NIPPON 50" is at the top, and "1967 INTERNATIONAL LETTER WRITING WEEK" is at the bottom. The stamp is cancelled with a circular postmark.

Two identical 50-cent postage stamps are shown side-by-side. Each stamp features a peacock with its tail feathers fanned out, set against a brown background with a repeating pattern. The text 'INTERNATIONAL LETTER MAIL' is printed vertically on the right side of each stamp. A circular postmark is stamped over the center of both stamps, and a date stamp '23.1.1978' is visible below the stamps. A small black dot is present on the left side of the stamps.
